

Ada Nydia Delgado

July 12, 1953 - July 10, 2021

The world lost a beloved leader, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and sister. On Saturday, July 10, 2021 Ada Nydia Delgado, 67, formally from Northampton, passed away peacefully at home in the arms of her loved ones.

Ada was born July 12, 1953 in Brooklyn, NY to the late Ramon And Carmen Ramirez Delgado. A loved sibling to 8. She was raised in San Lorenzo, PR. where she graduated as a nurse and quickly moved to settle and serve as a nurse in Massachusetts. Ada was a mother to 5, grandmother to 9, and great-grandmother to 2. She is honored and remembered for her love, compassion, and willingness to help those in need as well as her devotion to her family and community.

Ada was a community nurse, foster mother advocate for her community, and also president of the Tenant Association in Northampton. She was a member of the police panel for officers and candidates applying for to the Northampton Police Department. The community will always remember Ada for all the notable work and services for the Northampton community.

Ada was known for so much, but mostly for her compassion, understanding kindness, warm smiles and big hugs. Also, not to forget, her delicious meals and coffee that she would serve to any who stopped by her home for a visit.

Ada Delgado leaves today behind her children, Tyrone Delgado, Brenda Delgado, Joanne “ Michelle” Delgado, Carlos “Charlie “ Aponte, Yashira Aponte as well as her loving companion Paul C. Acosta. Cherished by grandchildren, Vannessa San, Tyrone Jr. Delgado, Justin Delgado, Kahluanny Delgado, Dante Santiago, Armani Santiago, Trinity Adorno, Mariah Aponte, Nebraska Roman, as well by great-grand children, Valarie and Sophia San.

Calling hours will be Wednesday, July 14, 2021 from 4-6PM at the DROZDAL FUNERAL HOME, 120 Damon Rd., Northampton. Funeral will be Thursday, July 15, 2021 from 10 – 11 AM, the service will begin at 11AM in the funeral home. Burial will immediately follow at Spring Grove Cemetery, Florence.

“ She was always my go to no matter what was happening in my life. Loving, caring, sympathetic, funny, so strong and independent! Ada was definitely one of those people who made this world a better place. I shared many cups of coffee with her, delicious meals, and amazing conversation. She was truly my friend and mentor. I will never forget you!❤️🥰🙄
