

Bonnie Lampron

August 14, 1960 - March 2, 2021

Bonnie (Bryant) Lampron, 60, of West Hatfield, passed away unexpectedly at her home on Tuesday March 2, 2021. She was born in Northampton on August 14, 1960 to Jack Bryant, and to the late Helen (Reuther) LeBlanc. She graduated from South Hadley High School and received a bachelor's degree from the University of New Hampshire.

She met and fell in love with Rene Lampron and were married for 30 years before his passing in 2010. Losing him broke her heart and she missed him dearly every day.

Bonnie was a communicant of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Holyoke. She enjoyed walking in her neighborhood, watching movies, and making scrapbooks and photo collages.

She is survived by her father, Jack Bryant of Phenix City, AL, her brother, Jeffrey Bryant and his wife Kathleen of Phenix City, AL; her niece, Laura Martyak and her husband Michael; nephew, Karl Bryant and his wife Jennifer and great-nieces and nephew: Stella, Julia, Jack and Annie Elizabeth; her aunt, Sandra Chiminello and her husband Richard of Hatfield; also cousins, dear friends and her cats, Peanut and Cameo.

Besides her loving husband, she was predeceased by her mother Helen (Reuther) LeBlanc, and her stepfather, Norman J. LeBlanc, Sr.

There are no calling hours. There will be a graveside service on Saturday March 6, 2021 at 10AM at Spring Grove Cemetery in Florence. DROZDAL FUNERAL HOME of Northampton has been entrusted with her services.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in her memory may be made to St. Peter's Lutheran Church, 34 Jarvis Ave., Holyoke, MA 01040
