“ Dear Jen and Steve , you probably don't remember me but I was a very close childhood friend of your brother, George. I would say that we were very close in our early teens . I periodically have recurring dreams that include George and a mutual friend of ours , Bobby Maloni . Today I awoke saying I have to contact both. I was saddened to read of George's passing . I would run into Bobby throughout the years and I had found out that George settled in the Northampton area . Now , regretfully I never pursued keeping in touch.

I so vividly remember so much of George and your family . For instance, I remember your Mom fondly calling your Dad “Clicky .” I remember sleeping, several times , on your blue colored chaise lounge , located on your sun porch . I remember also Jen your small bedroom off the kitchen seperated by bi-fold doors. Your best friend at the time was Karen Christian . Dad was a hard working man who was a Postman and also having a part time job at the Elm Market . Mom was a homemaker and loving Mother to her three children. I remember your Dad getting you a summer job as a chamber maid at a motel on Riverdale Street which was a place on your Dad's postal route . I apologize Steve for not remembering much of your youth most likely due to age difference at the time . I do remember though how much your big brother loved you. Your Mom and Dad were very good to me at the time .

In reading the obituary I learned that you both seemed to have good lives with loving families. I find solace knowing that George passed peacefully. I will miss our childhood times . I will never stop remembering him . I wish you and your families peace and love .

With my warmest regards and sympathy for your loss , Dickie Rulnick

“ I worked with George for twenty-plus years and can honestly say that there was nobody nicer. He was a kind soul, who never had a mean word to say about anybody. He was a friend to all. My condolences to his loving and caring family, who went the extra distance to be there for him at all times. I know that Muhammed Ali was the greatest, but George you were too.. Peace): Jon Hogan
