

Gerald B. Lustig

January 5, 1945 - January 3, 2024

Gerald B. Lustig, of Brooklyn, New York, age 78, passed away on January 3rd, 2024, in Amherst, Massachusetts.

Jerry was born in Brooklyn on January 5th, 1945. He lived a life filled with meaningful friendships, love, adventure, and a deep appreciation for good food. Known for his warm smile and generous spirit, Jerry was part of the first wave of New Yorkers in Northampton and the proud owner of a beloved deli, The Grocery, where he served the community the closest thing to Zabars outside of New York. Later on, he was an accountant and tax preparer for over 20 years. Jerry found solace and joy in exploring the world. His love for Asia, particularly Cambodia and Thailand, became a central theme in his life. He loved tennis, cured meats, and Mel Brooks films. He was truly a once-in-a-generation gift to his family, friends, and community.

Jerry is survived by his daughter Paloma, son-in-law Patrick, son Julian and daughter-in-law Kayla.

All services will be private and at the convenience of the family. DROZDAL FUNERAL HOME OF NORTHAMPTON HAS BEEN ENTRUSTED WITH HIS CARE.
