

Grace Mackiewicz

January 30, 1932 - July 3, 2024

Grace Mackiewicz, 92, of Florence, passed away peacefully at home on July 3, 2024.

She was born in Northampton, on January 30, 1932, to the late Zigmond and Helen (Gribko) Mackiewicz. Grace had attended Northampton schools and was raised in Northampton. Grace lived in Amherst and Florence residences through Behavioral Health Network for over 20 years.

Before Grace retired, she attended Thayercare in Hadley for 15 years. She leaves behind many dedicated long-term caregivers and friends including her longtime friend Susan MacIntosh, her housemates Annie, Charles, Melvin and Elizabeth.

Grace loved her Polish music, country music, old Westerns, Lassie, going to the Casino with staff Naomi, collecting yarn and needlepoint. Grace was a very caring human and took great pride in the care she gave to her mother so she could remain at home at the end of her life and was the housekeeper for her brother and father, so that they were able to work at the first taxi company in Northampton, which her family owned. She was a good friend to her many housemates over the years.

Besides her parents, Grace was predeceased by her brother Zigmond "Sonny" Mackiewicz.

DROZDAL FUNERAL HOME OF NORTHAMPTON HAS BEEN ENTRUSTED WITH HER SERVICES.

Her burial will be Thursday, July 11, 2024, at 11 AM in Holy Trinity Cemetery in Hatfield, MA and will be followed by a private reception.
