

Kimberly A. "Kim" Billett

October 2, 1961 - December 5, 2025

Kimberly A. (Malley) Billett, 64, of Florence, known lovingly as "Kim", passed away on Friday, December 5th, 2025. She was born in Northampton, MA on October 2nd, 1961, to the late James Malley and June (Seguin) Malley.

Kim was a devoted New England Patriots and Notre Dame fan whose spirit, warmth, and generosity touched everyone she met. She found her greatest joy in caring for her family and friends, and anyone who walked through her door knew they would be welcomed with open arms--often with a home-cooked meal waiting. Cooking for others was one of her greatest joys, and she shared that joy freely with everyone around her.

Kim was also a dedicated and long-time employee of the former Serio's Market in Northampton and Cooper's Corner in Florence, where she took tremendous pride in her work and the relationships she built within her community.

She leaves behind her loving family, her daughter; Megan Billett and her partner Tom Lukasik of S. Hadley, her beloved grand-dog, Riley, her brothers, Jack Malley, Rick Malley, and Michael Malley and his wife Aimee, her sister Cathy Wheeler and her husband Richard, as well as several nieces, nephews and many friends.

Besides her parents, James Malley and June Malley, she was also predeceased by her stepmother Ruth Malley, and her former husband and lifelong friend, Clifford Billett Jr.

Kim will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Her spirit of love, kindness, and caring will live on in the hearts of everyone who was fortunate enough to have shared in her life.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a future date, with details to be announced. DROZDAL FUNERAL HOME OF NORTHAMPTON has been entrusted with her services.
