

Leon A. Pedruczny Jr.

August 12, 1958 - August 16, 2024

Leon A. Pedruczny Jr., 66 of Hatfield, passed away on Friday August 16, 2024, at Care Dimensions Hospice House in Lincoln, MA surrounded by his loving family. He was born August 12, 1958, in Northampton to the late Leon and Rose (Sicard) Pedruczny Sr.

He had attended Northampton Schools and later Smith Vocational night School for plumbing. He was a U.S. Army veteran, where he served as a Sergeant in the military police at Ft. Hood, Texas. Leon was a Journeyman Plumber/Pipe fitter for many years for Springfield Terminal Railways (Pan Am Railways) where he was known as "The Piper". He was an avid baseball fan and loved fishing and hunting, although he wasn't always the quiet hunter. Leon enjoyed a hobby farming, growing many vegetables and growing beautiful sunflowers. He loved watching everything grow, especially his son and daughter. He always looked forward to the annual family beach day.

Leon is survived by his loving wife, Karen (Bielunis) Pedruczny of Hatfield, his son Tony of Northampton, and daughter Carley Rose of Hatfield, his sister, Ann Arnold and her husband Walter of Sunderland, his mother and father-in-law, Adam and Connie Bielunis of Hatfield, nieces, nephews, and extended family.

“ What memories we had with Leon growing up in Northampton. Chuck and myself had many conversation about Leon after we all grew up and left. Always remember that great swing the family had in the back yard. It felt like we were going over the frame. So many memories. Wishing family thoughts and prayers to his kids and family.

God Bless all
