“ I met Tom 18 years ago at the restaurant where he worked on the big island and we quickly became friends. Tom was the kind of amazing friend who was loyal to you no matter what. He was one of the most gentle and kind people I have ever had in my life. Even after time and distance we would still call each other up and talk about family, big island news, sports and our lives. He was always cheering for me. I will miss having him in my life.
